U STRING QUARTETS
WILL TOUR SCHOOLS

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana Young Artists' String Quartets will present programs in schools in six Montana communities during the next two weeks, according to their director, Dr. Florence Reynolds, UM professor of music.

One quartet will play in schools in Kalispell on Monday, April 10, and Libby on Tuesday, April 11. Members are Ann Gadow and Michael Lieb, violinists; Paul Engelbrecht, violist, and Jean Coonrod, cellist. Michael Coonrod, pianist, will assist the quartet.

The other quartet will give an afternoon recital at Eastern Montana College, Billings, on Sunday, April 16, and will perform in schools in Billings April 17, Bozeman April 18, Helena April 19, and Great Falls April 20 and 21.

The quartet is made up of Erika Doran and Gerhard Wolter, violinists; Heidi Ware, violist, and John Kirk, cellist. Chris Biehl, pianist, will also participate.

Young Artists' String Quartet programs for schools are partially supported by a grant from the Montana Arts Council.
